

ANUFC Animal Access Policy

ANUFC Animal Access Policy adheres to the policies of ANU, Capital Football and ACT Sportsgrounds.

ANU POLICY

Purpose

To outline considerations of pets on campus and minimise risks associated with their presence in University buildings.

Definitions

Assistance animal refers to the meaning under Section 9 of the Disability Discrimination Act 1992 \(Cth\).

Procedure

- Pets on campus should not undermine the University community's enjoyment of the campus and environments, nor threaten the operations or research of the University.

Control of pets on campus

- The University prohibits staff, students, contractors and visitors from taking pets into University buildings or other facilities, including vehicles. Pet animals have the potential to act as safety hazards and as vectors for transmissions of diseases to humans or research animals.
- Pets on campus grounds must be restrained and in the control of a competent person. Under the Domestic Animals Act 2000 \(ACT\) dogs are prohibited in play areas and on sports grounds when sport is being played or training is being conducted.
- Any pet that is a nuisance or displays aggressive behaviour will be prohibited from the campus.

Exemptions/exceptions

- Animals in approved research are excluded.

- Assistance animals - Guide and hearing dogs accompanying blind or deaf persons are allowed within University buildings.
- Other assistance animals are exempt only when the owner/person has an appropriately worded medical certificate or Disability Services Registration Card.
- As the University undertakes a variety of research, teaching and operational activities with varying degrees of hazard, it must be appreciated that certain area/rooms/ laboratories/locations may pose a significant risk to the animal and/or their owner. To ensure their safety and wellbeing, access to certain hazardous or restricted areas should only be undertaken after the risks are assessed and discussed with the person.

Regulatory obligations

- Sections of the Domestic Animals Act 2000 \(ACT\) may be enforced around the campus, given that the ANU campus is a public place in terms of the Act.

CAPITAL FOOTBALL/ACT SPORTSGROUNDS

The following applies to all ACT Government Sportsgrounds:

- Dogs are not permitted at any time at Enclosed ovals or synthetic grounds.
- Dogs are not permitted at any time at unenclosed grounds when sport is being conducted under a formal booking – this includes training and match play
- Dogs are only permitted on unenclosed ovals when the oval is not being used for organised sport.

The Domestic Animals Act 2000, Section 42 lists the prohibited places in the ACT where dogs are not allowed.

That Act states “A person must not take a dog onto a field or playing area where formal sport is being played. There is a fine for taking dogs into prohibited areas and that is $150.
